A Rendering of Solomon's Temple

1st Chronicles 19-29

January 25th – 31st, 2007

All Scripture is given by inspiration of God,
and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction,
for instruction in righteousness,
that the man of God may be complete,
thoroughly equipped for every good work. (2 Ti 3:16-17)

1st Chronicles—

- "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father, , and serve Him with a loyal heart and with a willing mind; for the Lord searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you seek Him, He will be found by you; but if you forsake Him, He will cast you off forever."

—1 Chronicles 28:9.

THURSDAY

Daily Bible Study

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 19

Questions to Ponder

1. What mistakes does Hanun make in this chapter? What was it that made him choose to do these things and what might he have done to avoid all of the problems we see take place? Any applications?
2. What did David do to cause the trouble we see take place in this chapter? What were his motives for sending his officials to comfort Hanun? What lessons can we learn from the trouble we see David go through in this chapter?
3. 1 Corinthians 13:7 says that love believes all things. This gives the idea of actually believing the best about others. How do we see Hanun fall short of that principle here in this chapter? How might we say that David actually fulfilled it here?
4. Today, are you living your life or making plans based upon "the evil" you think another is planning instead of seeking the truth and operating in true love? Explain.

FRIDAY

Daily Bible Study

Friday, January 26, 2007

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 20-21

Questions to Ponder

1. What two battlefields in our own lives might these two chapters represent? How so? How does David fare on these two battlefields? What lessons can we learn from these chapters concerning boldness, temptation, repentance and the Lord's mercy?
2. In verse one of chapter 21, we see that Satan stood up with the intent of hurting Israel. Who did he use to succeed in his attempts and how might this be a good reminder for us today concerning praying for our leaders (See 1 Timothy 2:1-4).
3. David was obviously tempted by Satan in an area that he was weak in. Take a moment to read James 1:13-16. What truths about temptation does this James passage remind us of and how do those truths apply to what we see happen in David?
4. Today, we can be assured that Satan is standing against the body of Christ. What might Satan be trying to move you to do? How do you plan to stand against his schemes?

SATURDAY

Daily Bible Study

Saturday, January 27, 2007

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 22

Questions to Ponder

1. From what we see in this chapter, what was David's part in building the temple? In his commissioning of Solomon to build the temple, what (or Whose) words did David use to encourage his son and why was this vital at this particular time in Solomon's life? What does this chapter reveal to us of David's heart and David's calling?
2. Who all was to be involved in building the temple and how might their cooperation be a picture of the way we are to function in the body of Christ today?
3. The Lord called David to use his calling as a warrior to fulfill the true desire in his heart— to contribute to the building of the house of the Lord. Today, what does the Lord have you doing in order to contribute to the building of the kingdom of the Lord Jesus?

SUNDAY

Daily Bible Study

Sunday, January 28, 2007

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 23

Questions to Ponder

1. In this chapter, David announced Solomon king and also organized the service of the temple. What were the duties to be performed by the Levites? Why do you suppose that David ordered the Levites the way he did? What does this say to us about the need for order in the church today (See also 1 Corinthians 14:40)?
2. With the establishment of the temple, how does the duty of the Levites change in this chapter? What is the significance of this change in duty and what lessons might we learn from it?
3. Today, what is your specific duty concerning in the body of Christ? Are you fulfilling that duty according to faith in Christ? Explain.

MONDAY

Daily Bible Study

Monday, January 29, 2007

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 24-25

Questions to Ponder

1. Order in the temple is further seen in these chapters. Who are the groups that were being ordered or scheduled here? Why do you suppose David scheduled their ministries? What are the benefits of doing so and what can we learn from his ordering of time?
2. Does it surprise you that David scheduled ministry in the temple? Explain. Take a moment to cross-reference Ephesians 5:15-17. How might that passage add to or help us apply what we see here in 1 Chronicles 24-25 to our own lives today?
3. Today, do you designate and purpose time for doing that which the Lord has called you to do? Explain.

TUESDAY

Daily Bible Study

Tuesday, January 30, 2007

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 26-27

Questions to Ponder

1. What jobs do we see mentioned in these two chapters? How significant are these jobs and how did their jobs contribute to the glory and majesty of the Lord?
2. Concerning these jobs, each man listed in these chapters was gifted by the Lord with the ability to do the work they were designated to do. Why is this important for us to see today as we walk in the gifts the Lord has given us in Christ Jesus?
3. Today, what do you do with most of your time? How is what you do with your time bringing glory to the Lord? Has the Lord placed you in a job that the world might look on as menial or that might not seem significant toward the act of worshiping God? Has the Lord called you to be an overseer of some sort? He has called you to this for His glory. Praise Him and worship Him in all you do, no matter how small of a job it may seem to be (See Colossians 3:23-25).

Passage for today: 1 Chronicles 28-29

Questions to Ponder

1. In Matthew 6:21, Jesus says, "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." From what we read in this section, where would you say David's treasure truly lies? How did he give? Why did he give? What were his thoughts about giving to the Lord? How might this be applied to our lives today?
2. Take a moment to ponder 1 Chronicles 29:10-13. What type of response did it well up in David? How is this a picture of pure and true worship?
3. Today, what is your attitude toward giving to the Lord? From what you see in this chapter, what should your giving be influenced by—obligation or praise? Explain.
