8:9-13

Peace with God Through Faith

5 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die—but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all men. For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. Now this is how it came in to increase the trespass, but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, grace might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. For one who has been set free from sin, now if we are united with Christ, we believe that we will also be united with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; he no longer has dominion over him. Just as death he died he died to sin, once; but the life he lives he lives to God. So you must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members as instruments for righteousness. For sin will not have dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

13 What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you offer yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves to sin have now become obedient from the heart to the teaching of the Christ abounded for¹⁶ many.¹⁶ And the free gift is not like the result of that¹⁷ one man's sin. For¹⁷ the judgment following¹⁷ the trespass brought condemnation, but¹⁸ the free gift following many trespasses brought¹⁸ justification.¹⁷ For if, because of one¹⁹ man's trespass, death reigned through that¹⁹ one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness²⁰ reign in life through the one man Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ Therefore, as one trespass led to condemnation for all men, so¹⁹ one act of righteousness¹⁹ leads to justification and life for¹⁹ all men.¹⁹ For as by the one²⁰ man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's²¹ obedience the many will be made righteous.²⁰ Now²¹ the gift came in to increase the trespass, but where²² sin increased, grace²² abounded all the more²² so that, as sin reigned in death, grace²³ might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace¹ may abound?² By no means! How can³ we³ who died to sin still live in it?³ Do you not know that all of us⁴ who have been baptized⁴ into Christ Jesus were baptized into his⁵ death?⁴ We were⁵ buried therefore with him⁵ by baptism into death, order that⁶ the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.⁷ For⁸ one who has been set free⁸ from sin.⁸ Now⁹ if we are dead with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.⁹ We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; no longer has dominion over him. Just as death he died he died to sin, once; but the life he lives he lives to God.¹⁰ So must consider yourselves¹¹ dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

¹² Let not¹² sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members as instruments for righteousness.¹³ For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

¹⁴ What then? Are we to sin¹⁴ because we are not under law but under grace¹⁵ means!¹⁶ Do you not know that if you offer yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?¹⁷ But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves to sin have now become obedient from the heart to the teaching of the increase the trespass, but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, so that, as sin reigned in death, grace might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? 2 By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? 3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? 4 We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, been set free from sin. 11 Now if we with Christ, we believe that we will live with him. 12 We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again.

He no longer has dominion over him.
13 For as he died he died to sin, once; but as he lives he lives to God. 14 So you must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let not sin therefore reign in your body, to make you obey its passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members as instruments for righteousness. 16 For you have no dominion over sin, since you are now under law but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

17 What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace?
Means! 18 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, which leads to death, or of obedience which leads to righteousness? 19 But be to God, that you who were once slaves to sin, become obedient to God, the Spirit

For if you live
according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the misdeeds of the body, you will live.
